

Filters for Due East Educational Equity Collaborative Online Posts

Does the post:

- center equity (and not “talk around” it)?
 - invite readers to question and challenge norms and/or practices of injustice?
 - critically analyze structures/systems of power?
- center BIPOC, especially students?
- foster inclusivity?
- consider historically absented narratives?
- avoid deficit mindset and language?
- allow space for community and ongoing communication?
- offer resources for further learning?
- include one or more of the following:
 - personal stories?
 - practical ideas/strategies?
 - support personal reflection for the reader?
 - a new or missing perspective on the topic?

The post is written by:

- PK-12 Educator
- Teacher Leader/Instructional Coach
- Professor/Post-Secondary Educator
- School Administrator
- District Administrator
- Post-Secondary Administrator
- PK-12 Student
- Post-Secondary Student
- Family member of a Student
- Educational Equity Consultant/Facilitator
- Additional Perspective:

The post is intended for:

- PK-12 Educators
- Teacher Leaders/Instructional Coaches/ PD Facilitators
- Post-Secondary Educators
- Administrators
- Students and Families
- Other Audience:
